Let's Start!

I love cookies ... do you?

Learning Outcome

Accurately exchange information about buying things in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you like to buy in a coffee shop?
- Do you like cookies, brownies or cake?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and ask how much things cost.
- I can talk about likes and dislikes.
- I can express possession.

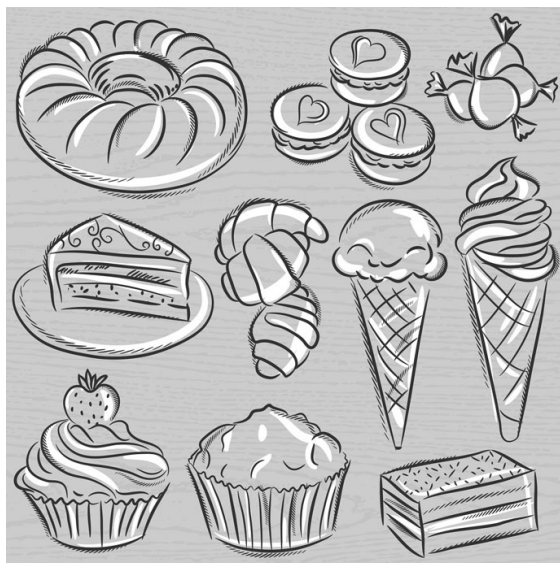

Let's Explore!

Sally and John talk about cookies, cake and brownies ... Yummy!

* When you say "Yummy!", it means you like to eat something.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: I feel like something sweet. I love your amazing cookies!
John: You really like sugar!
Sally: Yes, I do! Where can we go?
John: Umm ... There's Chocolate Haven down the street. Your friend Matt works as a clerk there.
Sally: Is it expensive?
John: Yes, it's a bit expensive.
Sally: How much does a piece of cake cost?
John: A piece of cake is about $6. I don't like their cakes very much.
Sally: Do they have brownies?
John: Yes, they do.
Sally: How much are their brownies?
John: About $2.50 each.
Sally: Hmm ... Are they fresh?
John: Yes, always fresh.
Sally: Yummy! I want to drink some milk as I eat my brownie.
John: OK, I'll just have a coffee.

Let's Practice!
