Let's Start!

Ciao! Hola! Hello! Say hello to people around you.

Learning Outcome

Exchange personal information about the home and family in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can introduce myself and ask how people are.
- I can ask people's names.
- I can greet people and ask how they are.

Ask your partner:

- How do you say hello to your friends?
- How do you say hello to a stranger?

Let's Explore!

Sally and Peter introduce themselves to each other. Then, Peter introduces Sally to Mr. Edwards.

* "Introduce" means to present a person to another person.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Conversation 1

Sally: Hi, I'm Sally! What's your name?
Peter: I'm Peter. Nice to meet you. How's it going?
Sally: I'm good, thanks. Your name is Paul, right?
Peter: No, Peter.
Sally: Oh, sorry! Is this Mr. Edwards' class?
Peter: Yes, it is. Are you a new student?
Sally: Yes, I am.
Peter: He's a good professor. Oh, here he is!

Conversation 2

Peter: Good morning, Mr. Edwards.
Mr. Edwards: Hello, Mr. Smith. How are you?
Peter: I'm very well, thank you. Please, call me by my first name, Peter. This is Sally. She's a new student.
Mr. Edwards: Hello, Sally. It's a pleasure to meet you and to be your teacher. What is your last name?
Sally: Davis.
Mr. Edwards: Welcome to class.
Sally: Thank you. It's a pleasure to meet to you, Mr. Edwards.
Mr. Edwards: Let's begin!

Let's Practice!

What's your name? Time to meet people and speak English!

Instructions: Match the question or statement on the left with the response on the right.
