Let's Start!

I'm Colombian ... Where are you from?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people, their likes and dislikes, homes or countries in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and say where people are from.
- I can talk about people's characteristics.
- I can talk about countries and nationalities.

Ask your partner:

- Where are you from?
- Where is your family from?

Let's Explore!

Peter, Pablo and Tracy talk about where they are from and their family background.

* Your family "background" is the country your parents and grandparents are from.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hello! I'm Peter. We are in the same group for our class project.
Pablo: Hi, I'm Pablo. You're very tall. Where are you from?
Peter: I'm from the United States.
Pablo: Oh, so you're American.
Peter: Yes, I'm from a town called Cambridge. Where are you from?
Pablo: I'm Colombian.
Peter: From where in Colombia?
Pablo: Medellin.
Peter: Oh, that's nice. And what about you?
Tracy: Hi, I'm Tracy. I'm Canadian. I'm from Toronto, Canada.
Peter: What is your family background?
Tracy: My mother is Irish. That's why I have green eyes. She's from a small town in Ireland.
Peter: Is your father Irish too?
Tracy: No, he isn't Irish. He's from Japan. His hair is black, like mine.
Peter: That's cool! I love Japanese food.
Pablo: Me too! Let's do our group project in a sushi restaurant!

Let's Practice!

Can you identify these countries and nationalities? Let's see!

Instructions: Draw lines to match the nationalities with the correct city and country.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------|
| 1. Medellin, Colombia | Canadian |
| 2. Toronto, Canada | Colombian |
| 3. Cambridge, United States | Irish |

Learning Points

Asking and Saying Where You Are From

You use Wh-question words to get information.
You use the word Where to find out about a place.

Ask	Say
Where are you from?	I'm from ... (place)
Where are you from? From where in Colombia?	I'm from Colombia. I'm from Medellin.

Position of Adjectives

You use adjectives to describe people, places and things.

You place adjectives before nouns (people, places and things), or after the verb to be.
Remember: The short form of He is = He's; She is = She's.

Before a Noun	After the Verb To Be
I love Japanese food. My father has black hair. He's a tall man.	I'm Colombian. She's Irish. My eyes are green.
