Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Exchange personal information about the home and family in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What kind of food do you like?
- What is your favorite restaurant?
Where is it?

Can Do Statements

- I can share personal information.
- I can make affirmative and negative statements and questions to express how people are.
- I can ask and say where places are in a neighborhood.

Let's Explore!

Peter asks Sally: How do you get there? Where does he want to go?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hello?
Peter: Hi Sally! Is your birthday dinner tonight?
Sally: Yes, it's tonight. It's at Koi's Sushi Inn, a Japanese restaurant.
Peter: Mmm! I love sushi! Where's the restaurant?
Sally: It's on Peterson Drive.
Peter: How much is dinner?
Sally: It isn't expensive. Dinner costs about $15.
Peter: What is the address?
Sally: The address is 14 Peterson Drive. P - E - T - E - R - S - O - N.
Peter: Where is it?
Sally: It's not far. Go down Main Street to Douglas Avenue. Turn right. Then, go straight until Peterson. It's at the corner.
Peter: OK, I meet my friend at a coffee shop close to there every day.
Sally: Your friend Ted? The tall guy with brown hair?
Peter: Yeah, he's from Chicago.
Sally: He's cute! Can you introduce me sometime?
Peter: Sure! See you at 7:00!
Sally: Bye!

Let's Practice!
